Job Title: PREEvision DEVELOPER 45-50k per year

Location: COVENTRY / UK

Job Description:

We are currently recruiting for the position of a PREEvision Developer to join our Coventry team of engineers and Technical Analysts. You would be taking part in an ongoing project within automotive industry. Main aspect of the job involves creating Autosar Networks Specifications using Vector software tools. The successful candidate should be prepared to work hard and anticipate a stiff learning curve from the very start.

Typical Tasks:

Creating arxml file Import guidelines for PREEvision
Create PREEvision client specific modelling guidelines
PREEvision model Clean-up
Coordination of all development activities and training
Create Java metrics for PREEvision
Introduction of new process for signal change Management and validation for client specific database

Candidates Profile:

- University Degree in Informatics, Mechanical or Automotive Engineering
- knowledge of automotive industry standards of ECU software download tools
- experience in Vehicle Networks and Diagnostics is essential
- experience and in-depth knowledge of Autosar Architecture is essential
- good knowledge of PREEvision software is essential
- strong interest in self-learning and motivation is essential

Interested?

Please forward your CV to: cv@atest.co.uk